

What a fantastic time had by all! The children have had the best time. They have erected their own tents, made a fire, purified water to make hot chocolate, took part in team building games, solved problems and cooked their own pancakes! They have worked incredibly well as a team and have shown amazing independence. We are all so proud of them.

